I have had the opportunity to review the Senate Report on H.R. 5155 and you are quite right: we still have the same reservations and recommendations. Although there have been a few changes, some of them substantial, we would still like to see the same amendments made to the bill. The new section 607 appears to remove some authorities from the Secretary of Defense and place them instead with the Secretary of Commerce, and I do not know if we are pleased with that approach, inasmuch as it is generally easier for us to deal with DOD. Also, section 606 in H.R. 5155 is evidently section 607 in the Senate amendments, which would necessitate a change in our comments. I would suggest you ask [redacted] if he objects to the UNCODED non-making authorities being removed from DOD and placed with the Secretary of Commerce.
